As a culmination of their celebration of 30 years as a band, Volume 2 provides a different look at a selection of songs spanning the band's entire career. Well, mostly. The Souls didn't set out to make a new impression on Volume 2. This was a chance to take the best elements of old classics and package them in a way that shows what their fans have known all along: That The Souls were never one-trick ponies, that their songs could at any time have been presented in any number of different ...
