Sammy's Hill is meant to be an easy, humorous read for young women still looking for Mr. Right. For that sort of novel, it is certainly an acceptable example of the genre and quite likely a welcome diversion from the hunt.

The heroine, Samantha "Sammy" Joyce is a young and idealistic healthcare advisor to the junior Senator, Robert Gary "RG" from Ohio on Capitol Hill. The books certainly did fill the void and in a highly entertaining manner. I found the idealistic (and hypocondriac) Sammy endearing.

Samantha Joyce has a very busy life. Working a seventy-hour week and mastering the details of the latest health-care reform bill, while making time to celebrate obscure but significant holidays such as the twenty-ninth anniversary of The Partridge Family series finale, leaves little time for romance.
