The "Slight Edge" involves the flywheel effect which caused the hyacinth to multiply. Success is built on each turn of the flywheel which builds upon work done earlier, compounding the investment of effort. It doesn't come from nowhere; it can't be conjured up out of thin air. It comes from a very small, tiny beginning, and grows with time.

Jeff Olson Quotes (Author of The Slight Edge)

The Black Diamond Speed 40 and North Face Shadow 40+10 both scored highest in durability. Much of this stemmed from the simple and minimal design of these packs; nothing extraneous meant less chances for parts to break. The slight edge went to the Speed 40; the more substantial frame sheet and stays were more robust than those on the Shadow 40+10.
